Above: World Youth Day 2011 in Madrid, Spain, was a success. Our youth are grateful to benefactors who have supported their fundraising efforts over the past three years. Two of our young people have responded to a vocational call: one to the priesthood and one young girl who feels called to religious life.

Thank you
prayers and support!

Above: After more than two years of living in trailers, our priests on Grand Turk have a new rectory next to the Church.

Above: As we announced in last year's Newsletter, on 20th November 2011 we used our new church on the island of Providenciales for the first time. Almost 600 parishioners gathered in the new building of Our Lady of Divine Providence Church.

Archbishop John Joseph Myers, Ecclesiastical Superior of the Roman Catholic Mission 'Sui Iuris,' Turks and Caicos Islands, will officially dedicate our new Church in the first weekend of February 2012.
