Evangelization Adults

During April, catechists in English were held at the parish hall for young adults from 13 years and older. A group of 30 people attended including married and single people. It consists of meeting two days per week in order to announce the Good News given by a group of catechists which includes Fr. Orlando. These talks were also available for Spanish & Creole speakers from the island.

Great mission

The Great Mission was given five Sundays during Easter season. Evening prayer was done as well a short catechesis in the streets of Five Cays. A way to share the joy of Christ’s resurrection and bringing the Gospel to the people on the streets held by the Neocatechumenal communities from the parish.

Catholic identity

Hurricane Maria caused much destruction to the Turks and Caicos Islands, including Holy Cross Church and St. Lucy’s Chapel in South Caicos. This past year, many repairs took place. The Church in South Caicos is part of the mission situation with around the catechist, most of them from the island.

Confirmations 2019

After completing the required two year CCD classes, a group of 20 young adults were confirmed on the 24th of February. The Holy Mass was concelebrated by Cardinal Tobin along with Msgr. Rozniak and Father Rafael.

Holy Family Academy New Building

KIDS

Every Saturday at 11 am CCD classes have been taking place at the school Holy Family Academy for the youth looking to complete the sacraments of First Communion, and Confirmation. Children get prepared to receive their sacraments as well as they involved Catholic formation and share time together.
